SOURCES OF PASSION: OFFICIAL RECORDS and HIDDEN GEMS

In the following pages, all regular entries, officially released, are in black. In Grey are the official songs which have been restored or cleaned by me (sometimes with significant improvement). Red and orange mark songs obtained by trade, not officially available yet. Red addresses tracks from various vinyls, 7", 12", LPs, dark red addresses other sources, demos, rehearsals, dubplates, etc. Blue are the known songs from whose I own no copy yet (hope this category will reduce in future!). Finally, there are several legendary titles with no extant recording known: there are written in purple here. (Light green is for tracks which have been mistakenly attributed to the Wailers and which should not be there).

I have neglected most of cheap compilations as well as some important Trojan releases which are outdated today like "African Herbsman", "Rasta Revolution", "In Memoriam", "In The Beginning", and so on. (Although most of them are now reappearing with extra tracks on CD, 2004).

Songs of Freedom. (SoF-1) to (SoF-4) , Tuff Gong, Island, 1992, is the best available compilation for whom wants to discover Bob Marley's legacy. The songs of this boxset span all over Bob Marley's career. The sound is neat but appears sometimes slightly remixed and less genuine. But, its greatest interest is the inclusion of the two very first songs recorded by Bob Marley and the Wailers in 1962. As far as the later periods are concerned, several rarities, like the original Iron Lion Zion, are only found in this boxset.

One Love, Heartbeat, 1991, (OL-1 and OL-2) has constituted the first volume of the whole collection. This double CD has been widely appraised for its great quality. As a consequence, its success encouraged Heartbeat to re-issue it under two separate CDs, "Simmer Down at Studio One" and "Wailing Wailers at Studio One" with exactly the same titles in the same order.

One Love At Studio One, Heartbeat, 2006, (OLSO-1 and OLSO-2), a re-edition of the above, with 1 more track (which was not new). More interesting, several tracks are presented in different form, for example without overdubs, which led to some exclusive here. And in the 1991 collection too...

Destiny, Heartbeat, 1999, (Dest) is the second volume, with an equal quality and interest.

Wailers And Friends, Heartbeat, 1999, (W&F) constitutes the twin volume. This one consists essentially to songs backed by the Wailers for other artists but it does contain songs sung by Bob (and Rita) not available elsewhere.

Climb The Ladder, Heartbeat, 2000, (CtL) presents more gems from the period, delightful!

The Toughest, Heartbeat, 1996; (Tough) concerns songs written by Peter Tosh, mostly for the Studio One period. Some were latter duplicated in the following Heartbeat volumes, however there are exceptions and some can not be found elsewhere! Surprisingly, this CD also contains tunes made for Lee Perry in the later years.

Birth Of A Legend. (BoL), Tuff Gong, Epic, 1977, for long it was the best compilation available of this material. Now, the Heartbeat series has replaced this record which suffered from an overdubbed sound.

In addition, Guajira Ska is only available in the rare "The Wailing Wailers" CD and Sound The Trumpet in the Trojan's "Christmas Reggae".

Greatest Hits At Studio One (GHSO). This compilation has I'm Still Waiting Alternate 2.

Another Dance Rarities From Studio One (ADR). The latest Studio One compilation has many unissued tracks so far from that period.

Best Of The Wailers, (BoW); Soul Rebel, (SRb); Soul Revolution Part II (SRv), from Soul Revolutionaries, 4CD re-edition, Trojan, 2005.

The Complete Bob Marley & The Wailers 1967 to 1972. (CBMW-1) to (CBMW-10) and (Rebel-), JAD, EMI, 1997 to 2002. A very interesting collection, an extraordinary work with very rich notes. Unfortunately, that "Complete" series is not complete mainly for legal reasons: all tunes included on Songs of Freedom are missing here. Curiously, few more cuts have been unexplainably forgotten. Except for the last 2 volumes which are excellent, the sound is generally (not always) slightly inferior to the two next collections. That series has been completed by a 4 CD Long-Box named "Rebel", a sort of best-of which also contains 13 songs not included in the series so far...

The Complete Upsetter Collection Bob Marley & The Wailers. (CUC-1) to (CUC-6), Trojan, 2000. A fabulous 6-CD Boxset covering the Lee Perry's production only. Very often – but, be careful, not always – the sound is superior to the (CBMW-n) series. Ten tracks are in artificial stereo with instruments on left and vocals on right, completely separated. That boxset also contains few songs from Dave Barker and Carl Dawkins where the Wailers are supposed to play as backing vocals.

Rebel Revolution (RR-1) to (RR-2), JMC, 1996. A cheap Portuguese 2-CD compilation with Lee Perry's production vocal tracks enchainned with their instrumental version. It is certain that these sequences were made in 1996.

Roots Of A Legend, Bob Marley & Friends (ROL), Trojan, 1997. A 2CD collection which offers 2 exclusives tracks: Rude Boy Version and Get A Beaten.

Grooving Kingston 12. (GK12-1) to (GK12-3), Fy-Ah, Fy-Ah. (FYA-1) to (FYA-3), Man To Man. (MtM-1) to (MtM-4), JAD Universal, 2004-2005. Three long-boxes with 3+3+4 CD. Apart from few exceptions, they contain already known tracks (but Marley's fans love exceptions!). Several unissued cuts are offered in the latest box. The sound is generally (but not always) more aggressive than (CBMW-n) and comparable to (CUC-n) except that the stereo tracks in (CUC-n) are mono here. However, it is a bit disappointing that there are some mistakes in the tracks layout of these compilations. I hope that future issues will fix them. Many illustrations are exclusive.

Original Cuts. (OC), (JAD Universal, 2004), a very new collection which contains (again) a couple of songs not available elsewhere. "Ammunition Dub Collection" (ADC) is another JAD-Universal release with 3 unreleased cuts. Wail'n Soul'm Selecta (WSS), a JAD-Universal compilation, has 2 unreleased mixes.

All The Hits, (AtH), Rohit, 1990: a cheap compilation available under different sleeves. For long it contained the dubs versions of 3 rocksteady songs which are not available anywhere else yet! (They are also in a rare CD compiled by Ragga Mag. Now they are in "Fy-Ah Fy-Ah" boxset).

: The Upsetter Record Shop – Part I, (URS-1), Part II Rarities, (URS-2), Esoldun, 1992: also available in different forms and sleeves, the 2nd CD is the most interesting, although most of its songs (but one!) can be found elsewhere today.

: These are remixed issues with a lot of overdubs. The first to be published (Tuff Gong – Solomononic, 1993) was “The Never Ending Wailers” (NEW), a project led by Bunny Wailer, and which was for long the only place to find Music Lesson (now on GK12). The second (JAD, 1996) is “Soul Almighty – The Formative Years Vol. 1” (SA-FY1) which presents You Think I Have No Feeling. The third (JAD, 199?) is “Black Progress – The Formative Years Vol. 2” (BP-FY2). However, those CD can be avoided as they have considerably changed the original music. In addition there is an Enhanced CD version of Soul Almighty – The Formative Years Vol.1 (SA-FY1-ECD) which presents a different songlist.

: These are the 8 albums released by Bob Marley for Island between 1973 and his death in 1981. They are Catch A Fire (CaF), 1973, Burnin’ (Bur), 1973, Natty Dread (ND), 1974, Rastaman Vibration (RV), 1976, Exodus (Exo), 1977, Kaya (Kay), 1978, Survival (Sur), 1979, Uprising (Upr), 1980. A –r and a –x indicate the remastered and the deluxe (when available) more recent editions.

: Confrontation (Con), Island, 1983, is very interesting post-mortem compilation that includes original tracks only, never released before on official albums. As a matter of fact, it can almost be considered as an official album as well. Remastered with one additional track in 2001.

: Rebel Music (RM), Island, 1986, is another compilation. It has a special version of the title song. Remastered with one additional track in 2002.

: Talkin’ Blues (TB), Island, 1991, is very interesting collection compiling a radio session recorded at the Record Plant, KSAN, San Francisco in October 1973 along with talking recorded in Kingston in 1975 and few live and alternative studio recordings. Remastered with additional tracks in 2002.

: Legend (Leg), Natural Mystic: The Legend Lives On (NM), One Love: The Best of BMW (OLB), Africa Unite (AU), are compilations of biggest hits. Legend has been re-issued in a deluxe edition with more tracks, few remixed or dubs. Natural Mystic has remixed versions of Iron Lion Zion and Keep On Moving. It has been remastered with 1 more track. One Love, which contains a remix of I Know A Place, has been issued in Europe (OLB-e) as a two-CD boxset including the rare Who Colt The Game. Africa Unite contains new remixes including Slogans.

: Original soundtrack from Countryman (Country). This record contains several original mixes or edits of Bob Marley’s songs.

From The Inside (FTI) is a bootleg (sound quality rating from average to poor). Shame on me. Don’t buy bootlegs. I did it long time ago, when I didn’t know. But, I swear, I didn’t shoot the Deputy.

: Play Play (PP), (JAD Universal, 2004), this collection presents early song by Rita Marley singing with the Wailers or the Soulettes.

: Arise Blackman (ABM)(Trojan, 2000), presents several early songs written by Peter Tosh.

: The compilation Champion Sound Vol 1 (Virgin France, 2001) has one title unavailable elsewhere.

: Can't Blame The Youth (CBTY), (JAD Universal, 2004), another very new collection, rather hard to find. It addresses early songs from Peter Tosh. "Black Dignity" (BD), also from JAD-Universal, has the unreleased Oppressor Man and its Version.. Love a cappella is only in "Stepping Razzor, the Complete Peter Tosh & The Wailers" (SR).

Honorary Citizen (HCTZ) (Legacy, Columbia Records, 1997), a 3 CD boxset very interesting as a good compilation of Peter Tosh's solo career. The 1st CD which presents several early songs written by Peter Tosh.

: Legalize It (LegIt), CBS, 1976, Equal Rights (EqR), CBS, 1976, Bush Doctor (BDr), EMI, 1978, Mystic Man (MyM), EMI, 1979, solo albums from Peter Tosh. The Jamaican version of Equal Right LP contained a longer mix of Get Up Stand Up.

: I Am That I Am (IAM), JAD Anansi (2001), Don't Want To Get Busted (DGB), Rastafari Records BMG, 2003 are two albums containing some very interesting Peter Tosh's acoustic material among interviews and live songs.

Blackheart Man (BHM) Island, 1976, Protest (Pro) Island, 1977 are the first solo albums from Bunny Wailer.

: Crucial! Roots (C!R) Island 1994 is a compilation of some Bunny's singles. Sings The Wailers (StW) Island, 1980 is a tribute compilation from Bunny to the old Wailers. Dub'n Disco Vol 1 & 2 (DnD), Solomonic is the re-edition of two dubs albums released in 1978 and 1980. Time Will Tell (TWT), Shanachie, 1981, also known as Tribute, is formed of Bob's covers. Two more songs of the period can be found on Rootsman Skanking (RSk), Shanachie, 1987, recorded earlier. World Peace (WdP), Solomonic, 2003, is a recent and rather rare records which contains few old tracks. Retrospective (Ret), Shanachie, 1995, is a compilation which has few tracks only available in vinyl before.

: Some Bunny's LP have never been re-issued in CD format. Then, few tracks are only available in vinyl form so far. There are Struggle (Str), Solomonic 1978, In Father's House (IFH), Solomonic 1979, Roots, Radics, Rockers, Reggae (R4), Shanachie, 1983, which is almost as In Father's House.

: The Wailers Legacy (The Wailers 40th Anniversary) (TWL) Solomonic Tuff Gong, 19XX, an hard-to-find 7 CDs boxset, compiled under the direction of Bunny Wailer. The first 4 CDs includes Wailers' songs from 1964 to 197x. The songs are remixed with more treble and often the result is much brighter. Alas, one can regret the choice of overdubbed later versions for few tracks. The last 3 CDs is a Bunny talking about the Wailers history over the music.

: Bob Marley & Friends (BMF), Trojan Boxset. A 3 CD box with 50 songs from different artists who were linked in some way to Bob Marley during the Trojan era. Tribute To Bob Marley (TBM), Trojan Boxset is another 3 CD boxset with some relevant songs for this discography.

: Lost Treasure of the Ark (LTA), Troajn. A 3CD set with songs produced by Lee Perry in his Black Ark studio. It includes several Bob Marley & The Wailers tracks.

: The Complete UK Upsetter Singles Collection Volume 2 (CUKU-2) to 4 (CUKU-4). These volumes contain some Lee Perry's produced singles from the Wailers, along with the B-sides played by the Upsetters.

: Blackboard Jungle Dub (BJD). This is a record from the Upsetters which appeared under different jackets and even different setlists. This set is also to be found, expended and with better sound in Dub Triptych (DTT). In The Iwah (a.k.a In The Iaah) is available in a couple of Lee Perry & The Upsetters CDs ("Double Seven" and "The Upsetter Compact Set").

: The Wailers Dub Marley (WDM), Tabou 1: a CD produced and compiled in France issuing songs released on a very limited scale in Jamaica in 1976. There are recordings made during the breaks of Rastaman Vibration sessions by the Wailers Band and guitarist Lloyd "Guitsy" Willis. They recorded 10 of Bob's hits and each of them was dubbed.

WAR War – Haile Selassie I (War), Rastafari Record (2000): produced by Bruno Blum, this is an amazing project. Haile Selassie's voice has been mixed together with Bob Marley over music and rhythm played by the Wailers Band. Big Youth and Buffalo Bill are also invited singers. The result is fascinating.

: Augustus Pablo Meets Lee Perry And The Wailers Band (PMP), Jamaican (2006): recently issued on the commercial market, several reliable Marley collectors and "historians" seriously doubt about the authenticity of these cuts. They could be a recent mix made without A. Pablo.

Trade: There are several collections of unreleased studio material that exist in the hands of many traders over the world. Here are some among the most popular which have been used to localize the referred tracks. However, this list is far from being exhaustive. Tracks which are found in no specific collections are just indicated as (Trade). Some tracks were found on the web and are marked (SSK) or simply (MP3). Others come from newsgroup (NWG). The considered collections (so far) are:

Huge Single Collection (HSC): an incredible collection of 190 singles posted on newsgroup, in MP3 but with quality often much better than any other available material. Too huge to be traded, don't ask.
Bunny Single Collection (BSC): an incredible collection of 50 singles from Bunny, and few from Peter, posted on newsgroup, in MP3 but with quality often much better than any other available material. Too huge to be traded, don't ask.
Peter Single Collection (PSC): a collection singles from Peter collected at various locations on the web.
Studio One Archives (SOA): another huge collection of Studio One singles. 48 volumes of about 24 songs each exist in total.

Some collections with usually traded material have been issued in Japan. They are not strictly speaking bootlegs, however one can wonder about what they are exactly ... I own four of them:

Welcome to Dubrock (WDR)

Tuff Gong Studio 74-79 Vol 1 & 2 (TGS-V1,2)

Anniversary (Ann)

Also there is my own collection, the Trader Anthology. Those volumes include versions of songs cleaned by myself (to be revisited in next future). There are:

The Trader Anthology: Soul Revolution III (TA-SR3)
The Trader Anthology: Survival Full Rehearsal (TA-SFR)
The Trader Anthology: Wounded Lion Session (TA-WLS)

PART I: THE SKA ERA (1962-1966)

Thanks to Heartbeat the very first years of the Wailers (1962-1966) have been rather well released, offering an almost complete integral and respecting the original sound without any overdubs. However, nothing is perfect, few tracks are still missing. Also, one can regret that these releases do not follow any historical logic. In order to see clearer in all those volumes, I undertook the task of establishing that list of compared versions of all songs which are available from Bob, Peter, Bunny and the Wailers from these times. Here, the song list is arranged chronologically according to available information. When choice is available, I have underlined my preferred version; it is a very subjective matter and many wouldn't agree with me.

PART II: ROCKSTEADY AND EARLY REGGAE (1966-1972)

Those recent years have seen the publication of excellent compilations which have presented crucial songs from 1967-1972 period and unearthed very rare material. Despite of the very high quality of those works (especially Bruno Blum's), I feel not fully satisfied because, for different reasons, all of them failed in their twofold ambition: being exhaustive and giving a coherent overview. Bob Marley & The Wailers discography is still a mess! Maybe, that's the way it should remain – we are talking about reggae and rasta music, don't forget – anyway, I still dream of the St Graal, the perfect compilation.

Changes since issue number 12 (July 28th, 2008):

Document completed on January 28th 2009.

Changes:

- There is a Version of The Beauty of God's Plans by Rita Marley.
- There is a single version of Peter's Brand New Second Hand different from the LP
- There is a Vampire with more "vampire" noise.
- Man Greatest Adventure, a new Peter Tosh's song.
- Addition of Waiting In Vain Alternates, respect to Klaus, a German collector.
